

CONFORMITY DECLARATIONS CONCERNING PAPER TO BE IN DIRECT CONTACT WITH FOODSTUFFS

We confirm that:

Paper baking cases with the brand name: House of Marie

are in compliance of:

CE Communitarian Legislations:

- Regulations EC 1935/2004
- Regulations EC 1907/2006
- Regulations EC 2023/2006

As well as the

- LFGB (Lebensmittel- und Futtermittelgesetzbuch) 24/7/2009
- German Recommendation XXXVI and XXXVI/2
- Code of Federal Regulations, FDA 1/4/2010
- Decreto Ministeriale 21/03/1973
- Verpakkingen- en gebruiksartikelenbesluit (Warenwet) 1/10/1979
- Lebens- und Gebrauchsgegenständeverordnung LGV 16/12/2016
- Bedarfsgegenständeverordnung LGV 16/12/2016

PFAS

The materials used for our baking cases do not contain poly and perfluoroalkyl (Fluorinated) . Substances collectively known as PFOA/PFAS as an intentionally added substance. Our products have not been tested for the content of this substance, this statement relies on information from our suppliers.

Microplastics

House of Marie baking cases do not contain microplastics as listed in (EU) 2023/2055 - Restriction of microplastics intentionally added to products. This statement is based on the information our suppliers provide/

Suitable for food packaging and baking paper in conventional ovens as well as microwaves devices at temperatures up to 220°.

We guarantee a storage life of 5 years, when packed in boxes and stored at a temperature 12° - 22°.

31 August 2024

House of Marie
Straten 15a
5688 NJ Oirschot The Netherlands